EMMAUS

COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. XXIII No 2

March 2013

From the North Mississippi Emmaus Community
Lay Director, Melanie Guerry

What's in a name? – Everything!

Several years ago we were going through a very difficult and painful situation. But God cannot help but be faithful, and brought us through. In the midst of it, I knew I didn't have to defend myself because God would reveal the truth in His time. One night at Candlelight for the Koinonia Community the Lay Director had hung various names for God from the rafters of the outdoor chapel. Beautiful! I saw one that stopped me in my tracks – I AM. God spoke so clearly to me in that moment: "Melanie, if I choose never to reveal the truth, am I still enough for you?" He taught me to say yes for that situation, and is still showing me how to say yes in all things.

We have just completed our first two walks for 2013. God is still showing us that He is enough – he is more than enough! 71 men and women received the blessing of "I AM." God refreshed and renewed them, and then returned them to their churches and communities to continue their journey to "go and do likewise."

We have eight more walks this year. Pilgrim applications are low, but He has provided for these first four walks. Who do you know that can benefit from this experience? God is asking us to change our world, one pilgrim at a time!

A beautiful new sign has been donated to the camp by an anonymous donor and is located just outside the dining hall and now has the wording to match our introductions!
