NORTH MISSISSIPPI

EMMAUS

COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. XXIII No 2

March 2014

From the North Mississippi Emmaus Community
Lay Director, Winfred Sanderson

“For as many are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God.” Romans 8:14

The Walk to Emmaus’ objective is to build His church. As the Spirit of Christ pursues us, we receive it, develop it, molded by it, and then share Him with others. There is nothing, absolutely nothing, more important than a personal relationship with Christ, then sharing it! To the world you may be one person, to one person you may be the world! Share Him!

Over the years there have been many souls transformed by His spirit as they experienced the Walk to Emmaus. You’ve experienced it! Thanks to each of you who had any part in Walks 283 & 284. The reports have been outstanding. God is still at work pursuing souls and drawing them closer to Him. He hasn’t changed! He’s immovable!

New Pilgrims, now is the time to get your feet planted in service to Christ at home and your community as well as becoming a team member. Please complete the team app and allow yourself to be a sacrifice for Him. Invite a friend or family member to share the walk experience as well!

Please be in prayer for the development of those who attended the recent walks as well as for those who will be attending during the upcoming Emmaus and Chrysalis Walks. Future Lay Directors are busy praying and building God’s teams and your prayers are the foundation for these walks. You can find future walk dates by going to the web site, nmsemmaus.org then click on “Walk Dates for 2014” without having a password.

De Colores,

Winfred Sanderson
