COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. XVI, No. 5

September 2007

From the Lay Director

Harry Dieckmann 4258 Sun Valley Blvd. Tupelo, MS 38801
(662-841-1395) harry@tecinfo.com

How do we begin each day? Are we overwhelmed and consumed by the 'business' of the world? Are there quiet moments of reflection that can guide us? Wallace Friday provides a Morning Prayer that has been useful to me.

*"This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it."
(Psalms 118:24)*

"O God, for another day, for another morning, for another hour, for another minute, for another change to live and serve Thee, I am truly grateful."

*Do Thou this day free me
from all fear of the future,
from all anxiety about tomorrow,
from all bitterness towards any one,
from all coward ness in the face danger,
from all laziness in the of work,
from all failure before opportunity,
from all weakness when Thy power is at hand.*

*But fill me
with Love that knows no barrier,
with Sympathy that reaches to all,
with Courage that cannot be shaken,
with Faith strong enough for the darkness,
with Strength sufficient for my tasks,
with loyalty to Thy Kingdom's goal,
with Wisdom to meet life's complexities.
with Power to life me to Thee,*

*Be Thou with me for another day, and use me as Thou wilt.
For Christ's sake I pray. Amen.*

"Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, Brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable – if anything is excellent or praiseworthy – think about such things. ... and the God of peace will be with you. [Philippians 4: 6-9]

DeColores,
Harry Dieckmann
