COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. XIV, No. 2

March 2005

From the Lay Director

Janice Curran (662-773-5138)

currand@bellsouth.net

Joy is very different from happiness. Happiness is a human emotion that comes as a result of good things in life. Joy is surprise from heaven. Joy falls on you suddenly from above. It is a spiritual experience. Joy bursts in our lives in a way that results in rejoicing. Joy is one thing that I regained in my life on my pilgrim Walk to Emmaus. My prayer for all the pilgrims of 2005, is that they find more Joy in the Lord, but most of all that they experience All God has for them every minute of their Walk to Emmaus.

You will show me the path of life; in your presence is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Psalms 16:11

The first two Walks of 2005 have made their final preparations and are anxiously counting the days until they will welcome the pilgrims to the camp. We can't all be there in person but we can all be on our knees in prayer. Prayer is the strength of each walk. If you have not signed up for a prayer time on the prayer banner, it is not too late. You can call Genie Tindoll (662-289-5929) she will be glad to help you find a time to pray. Remember, prayer is the real secret to Emmaus!

Sponsorship is so important to ensure a successful Emmaus experience. Pray about people you would like to sponsor. Stay in touch with your pilgrim. Be a vital part of your pilgrim's walk by your sacrificial attendance to Sponsor's Hour, Candlelight and Closing and don't forget to send agape and letters. Respond to Sybil Arant's correspondence about your pilgrim. She needs confirmation that your pilgrim will attend the walk. Notify Sybil Arant immediately if for some reason your pilgrim at the last minute cannot attend the walk. Often space can be filled with someone on the waiting list.

We, the Emmaus Community, have another tremendous opportunity of service to Honduras. This mission, for our community in reaching another part of the world, needs our help. They need our prayers, our support financially and agape. Now is the time. Send donations for Honduran Pilgrims attending their walk in Costa Rica to: Harry Lee Robinson, P.O. Box 228, Winona, MS 38967.

In His Service,
Janice Curran
