NORTH MISSISSIPPI

EMMAUS

COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. XXIII No 4

August 2014

From the North Mississippi Emmaus Community
Lay Director, Winfred Sanderson

One of my former pastors often made this statement, "The Bible says it, I believe it, that settles it!" That's quiet simple, but so powerful.

We all need a standard to live by and there is none other greater than His Word. Remember how we can Grow through Study. The more time we spend in His word, the more our lives will be influenced by His standard.

Have you taken the time to observe others as if you were looking through the eyes of God? The more that I do this, the more I come up with only these conclusions. God is so merciful! How can He continue to love us unconditionally when we are such sinners? His grace is amazing!

Another truth is to rearrange the same words from the initial quote, "God's word says it, that settles it, whether we believe it or not." Which statement can you claim?

Recently ballots were sent to the community for the election of Board of Directors starting in 2015. Please return yours via email no later than September 11th. If you need a ballot, contact me at wsanderson@bellsouth.net. Your vote is very important!

Updating your current team application is a must even if there are no changes. Please forward your name, walk #, mailing address, all phone numbers, and email address to peggyjeanyarbrough@yahoo.com (A-M) or nhwax@yahoo.com (N-Z). This will greatly assist future Lay Directors in contacting you instead of passing you by.

Prayer for our students and teachers as they have started a new year.

Please be in prayer for our Lay Directors for 2015
