COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER

Vol. XIV, No. 3

July 2005

From the Lay Director

Janice Curran (662-773-5138)

currand@bellsouth.net

110 Curran Dr., Louisville, MS 39339

I have just returned from Vacation Bible School Family Night at our church. I watched the children's faces as they shared what God was doing in their lives. They were excited to learn the praise songs and the Bible verses. They were having fun learning more about God and how to share that message with others.

One of the memory verses for VBS was Psalm 25:4 & 5.

Show me your ways, O LORD, teach me your paths; guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my Savior, and my hope is in you all day long.

I reflect on the Emmaus Community and how we need to commit those verses to our hearts and actions in our day-to-day lives. Are we letting God show us His ways? Are we letting Him teach us His path for our lives? Are we letting God guide us in His truth, His Word, teaching us daily? Are we stepping up when called by God and taking the tasks He has assigned for us to do? We must rely on God for guidance in everything we do, especially when we are taking on new responsibilities for Christ, and stepping out in total faith.

Often, when I have taken that leap of faith and completely trusted God; not been afraid, worried, or fretful about all the details, I have witnessed the power of God going before me each step of the way. I pray that when we are called upon to follow a new path that we will trust God and not be afraid.

In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not be afraid. Psalm 56:4

We are called to be obedient to God, to do whatever He wants, when He asks. It means we hold nothing back and do not insist on God fulfilling our expectations. Let it be said of you and me that our lives, actions and heart intentions reflect our love and devotion to Jesus and that we take every challenge and answer yes, Lord Yes!!

I would like to acknowledge some people in our community who have answered Yes. They took that giant leap of faith and received a tremendous blessing in their lives and the lives of 36 men and 36 women. Harry Dieckmann and Sandra Reid, the Lay Directors of Walk 179 and Walk 180, followed God's direction in putting together two wonderful teams. The

And we pray in order that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please him in every way; bearing fruit in every good work, growing in the knowledge of God. Colossians 1:14

Some other people who have answered yes to the Lord's call are our Chrysalis Lay Directors and their teams this summer. Crossroads started the Chrysalis Walks with a tremendous spirit of working in the lives of young men and women. I want to thank Tina Hudson and Larkin Kennedy for the great job they did in setting the pace. Then in June, Kim MacKenzie, Kevin Stafford and Melanie Mitchell followed with three dynamic walks. I can't wait to see how God works in the next two Chrysalis Walks, they will be led by Jack Holliday and Frances Bourland.
